Thursday, January 4. 1705.

THE Canton of Schaffhuysen, following the Example of those of Zurich and Berne, caus'd an Order to be publish'd last Sunday, which enjoyns all their Subjects without exception, not to concern themselves any further in the Trade of Horses, in any manner or under any Pretext whatever; on the Penalty of a Fine of 100 Ducats and Lots of Burghership. This Order is a terrible Blow to some private Persons of the Territory of Schaffhuysen, and cuts off all Hopes from the French of procuring Horses from Germany through Switzerland. A general Diet of the Cantons will be open'd the 16th of next Month.

Bafil, Dec. 28. The 5 principal Roman Catholick Cantons, do not appear dispos'd yet to send their Deputies to the General Diet of the Cantons appointed to meet at Baden the 16th of next Month. We have receiv'd Advice, that the Express which these Catholick Cantons sent to the Duke of Savoy, about the Officers their Subjects that were taken Prisoners in Piemont by the French, is return'd with an Answer that does not satisfie them, nor the Kindred of those Officers: And it being known that some of those Officers have, by Permission from the Duke of Vendome, had a Meeting with some of their Kindred and Friends at Lugaris on the Frontier of the Milaneze, 'tis very much apprehended they will enter into the French Service, the rather because most of them have formerly serv'd the Crown of France. Count Trautmansdorf, the Emperor's Ambassador, has presented a long Memorial to the Laudable Cantons, in which he amply informs them what great Advantages the Arms of his Imperial Majesty and his Allies have gain'd over the Enemy this Campaign, and tells them he doubts not they take part in the common Joy for the same. Monsieur Colombe, the Marquis de Puiseux's Secretary whom the Marquis left here when he went to Paris, has receiv'd Order from the Court of France to pay Pensions to some of the Cantons, and at the same Time to give out Commissions for raising several Companies of Foot Soldiers, against the Arrival of the Marquis de Puiseux, who is to fix the Regulations for those Levies.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 6.

Paris, Dec. 29. The Marquis de Puiseux, is to set out the last day of this Month for Switzerland, with his former Character of Ambassador of France to the laudable Cantons; 'tis said he has already receiv'd new Instructions from the King, after having had several private Conferences with his Majesty. Besides the Recruits and New Regiments that are raising, his Majesty has taken a Resolution to augment every Company of Infantry already on Foot with 5 Men. Proof has been made, in the Canal of Versailles, of Copper Pontons of a new Invention, which were found fit to be us'd in laying Bridges over Rivers, yet 3 of them may be carried upon one Waggon.

Dresden, Dec. 24. The Deputies of the Province of great Poland complain much of the Swedish Generals, who treat them almost as rigorously as they do those who are of King Augustus's Party. The King of Sweden who has his Quarters at Fravenstat, has answer'd them, that the present Juncture of Affairs would not allow his Troops to act otherwise, and that it was but just they should subsist those who came to succour them: The pretended new King is with his Swedish Majesty, who has renew'd his Promise of Crowning him before Spring. 'Tis said Monsieur du Heron, Minister of France, has represented to the King of Sweden the Progress of the Arms of the Allies on the Saar and Moselle, and insinuated that the Dutchy of Deuxponts may suffer by them. 'Tis thought the King of Poland will continue in this Electorate most part of the Winter, because the Plague continues to spread in the Provinces of Poland. Monsieur Prebendowski, Great Treasurer of the Crown of Poland is arriv'd here from Berlin, to report to the King the Success of his Negotiation. He had no Audience of the King of Prussia, because of some Difficulties about the Ceremonial, but 'tis said he will shortly return to Berlin.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 6.

Dresden, Dec. 27. Letters from Cracow advise, that the King of Sweden is in Motion with 7 or 8000 Horse, with design to possess himself again of that Place, and to crown the pretended King Stanislaus there. If this News is confirm'd, his Polish Majesty will 'tis suppos'd soon leave this Place to return to Poland and traverse the Designs of his Enemies. Monsieur de Marechal, the King of Prussia's Minister, is arriv'd in this City, with a Commission that is kept secret. The Palatin of Culm is return'd to Caminiec from his Embassy to Muscovy.

Falmouth, Dec. 30. Yesterday arriv'd here the Herbert Galley of and for London in 10 days from Lisbon, Valentine Wye Commander. Put in also a Dogger bound for Holland, that left 4 of our Men of War at some distance off this Harbour.

Plymouth, Dec. 31. Yesterday Her Majesty's Ship the Chatham sent into this Port a Dutch Ship which she retook; the Dutch Ship came from Viana. Yesterday likewise Her Majesty's Ship the Rupert, and the Ships with Stores mention'd in my former to be sail'd hence for Ireland, were put back by contrary Winds.

Harwich, Jan. 2. On Sunday the Marlborough Pacquet-Boat sail'd from hence with a Mail for Holland and 40 Recruits for Her Majesty's Service in the Netherlands. Part of the Hull Fleet that sail'd last Week for the River, are driven back hither by contrary Winds.

London, January 4.

Yesterday the Colours and Standards taken from the Enemy in the Battle of Bleinheim, were brought from the Tower through the City to Westminster-Hall. The March was in the following Order, viz. First came the Horse Grenadiers, next Detachments of the 3 Troops of Horse Guards, led by Collonel Ogilby and 18 other Officers, then the Standards in Number 38, four in a Rank, carried by private Gentlemen of the Troops of Guards, then the Grenadier Foot Guards, the Hautboys playing the Tune of, Let the Soldiers Rejoyce, &c. then the Foot Guards, and in the place of the Pikes of those Guards, were brought the Colours 4 in a Rank in Number 132. The March was from the Tower to St. James's, where Her Majesty being in the Lord Fitz-Harding's Lodgings, saw them pass by; From thence they march'd through St. James's Park to Westminster-Hall.

Number

Yesterday Stocks were as follows, Bank 120. Old Comp. 124 & 3 qrs a 5. New Comp. 257. Shares 23 & a half. Million Bank 84 & a half. Africann 21 & a half. Sword Blades 73 & a half a 3 qrs.
